SUSTAINS MR. LYON

Supreme Court Indorses His Claim to $15,000 for Prosecution of Grangers.

COLUMBIA, S. C., March 14.—The Supreme Court of South Carolina to-day sustained the claim of Mr. J. M. Lyon, a prominent lawyer of this city, to the sum of $15,000 for his services as prosecuting attorney in the case of the Granger railroad. The association known as Dr. Hezel's Hebrew School, of this city, decided at a meeting held on December 23th to erect a building to be used for the purpose of education. The building is to be known as the Y. H. A. which name indicates the association.

day handed down an opinion by Mr. Justice Woods, in which Attorney J. Frazier Lyon is sustained. The cost of the litigation for $15,000 appropriated by the state general assembly for the prosecution of the alleged dispensary grafters. This matter was upset when Judge Pritchard, in the Federal court, assumed jurisdiction of the dispensary

The opinion is regarded as a victory for the fund, amounting to $800,000. The case was a friendly suit, and brought by the Attorney-General against the members of the wind-up commission, being in the nature of a writ of mandamus, compelling the commission to turn over to the Attorney-General the $15,000 set aside for the prosecutions.

THE SILVIA ON THE REEF

Still Fast at Vineyard Sound, Where She Grounded.

WOODS HOLE, MASS., March 14.—The Red Cross Line steamer Silvia, from New York for Halifax and St. John's N. E., which struck on the Sow and Pigs Reef at the entrance to Vineyard Sound early to-day remained hard and fast on the reef to-night. Her passengers who were taken off by the revenue cutter Mohawk were carried to New Bedford, where they remained to-night awaiting arrangements which are to be made by the steamship company for forwarding them to their destination. Efforts will be made tomorrow to remove the Silvia from her dangerous position.

To-night the sea was smooth and the weather clear, and vessel was apparently in no imminent danger of capsizing.

Among the passengers on the Silvia were the crews of two wrecked vessels, the steamer Beta and the British schooner Marjorie J. Sumner, which were wrecked in West Indian waters with Leeward. These crews were lightship, is said to have been the cause of the grounding of the Silvia. At the time of the accident there was a thick fog.

Rehearsals are now being held for the minstrel show to be given on Friday evening, March 27th, by the Rollickers in connection with the Women's Christian Association. The Rollickers is a newly-organized amateur club, including some of the best amateur actors of the city.

The cast for Friday will contain from twenty-five to thirty young men, and promises to be one of the most unusual. The performance opens with the "Court of Fun," which contains some of the latest songs and jokes. Mr. W. K. Baehle will occupy the Interlocutor's chair, and Messrs. Thomas

The second part will be equally as attractive, and will include Messrs. Royster and Goddard in their Dutch dialogues, concluding with a farce, "One Morning With John the Just," in which all members of the
